Chris Jones
Senior Campaign Finance Analyst
Federal Election Commission
Identification Number: C00420935
Reference: Request for Additional Information issued 3/11/21

Mr. Jones,
The Request for Additional Information states that the committee may have failed to file one or more last minute 48 hour notification reports during the 48 hour reporting period. All notices were filed correctly and on time with the exception of three contributions, two of which were filed late.

Kevin McCarthy for Congress has very firm, written procedures in place for 48 hour notification filings. Through our compliance firm, the Committee provides multiple notifications of the 48 hour requirements to all fundraisers, agents, and staff of the Committee, both prior to and repeatedly during the 48 hour filing period. All relevant parties provide documentation and verify all contributions and provide them to our compliance firm for filing. All contributions are further sent overnight to the compliance firm to physically verify, file, and deposit.

In two instances, in the last days prior to the election, a caging firm inadvertently failed to scan and overnight two last minute contributions, which were received near the end of the 48 hour reporting period. As soon as the compliance firm received the packages and realized the omission, reports were filed immediately to ensure that they were placed in the public record. In the third instance, mail related shipping delays at the caging firm and the weekend resulted in one contribution that was not processed by the compliance firm until the 48hr reporting period had passed. The campaign is very serious about following the law and proper procedures and has always acted in good faith to adhere to Federal election regulations. Further, the campaign has reviewed and reiterated its procedures internally and has taken actions to ensure that such a situation does not re-occur.

Sincerely,
Jill Thomson
Treasurer
Kevin McCarthy for Congress
